Kraftwerk single by Die Krupps about Kraftwerk: Kraftwerk, or KraftWERK, is an international concept band active since the 1970s. Members: Florian Schneider (keyboards, music & lyrics), Ralf Hütter (guitars, music & lyrics), Karl Bartos (bass, music & lyrics), Wolfgang Flür (drums, music). Even when they took German top positions for their albums, critical opinion appreciated them for successfully combining old and new sounds to form a new, eclectic sound. They are special in many ways but the common factor is their attention to details in sound production and instruments. First and most of all, the album cover paintings were all designed by Karlheinz Stockhausen. This was a professional band and on record they produced some very commercial music (most albums have hit single) but also great classical music (their best album "Radio-Activity" reached platinum) and, of course, tons of great tunes like "Herzogenauriger Trunkenbold" (Golden Tornado) or "Der Moment der Wahrheit" (The Moment of Truth). There are two famous German singers who appear on their recordings: Klaus Dinger (aka The Hacker) and Mandy Meyer.
