These are the links of NTSD 2.4 full credit to zxcv and the ntsd team. <http://rapidshare.com/files/244275529/NTSD2.4.rar> ht. So how does this game work? When you press the key you want to use, the game will wait until you release the key and the next frame is shown. This allows you to input complex commands before firing. You can use the F key to switch to the next/previous character in the current input string. You can use P and/or X to input strings, of which there is more about below.
