Mac Virus Protection: Your computer should have Mac antivirus software that protects your Mac. Many are free or available for a nominal fee. For the best security, it is recommended that you use multiple antivirus software tools on your Mac. Your updates will be delivered to you automatically. For security reasons, however, your update delivery will be delayed. If the delay lasts for more than two hours, you should go to the help menu and select Download Now . With Avast Free Antivirus, you'll always have the latest defense against viruses, spyware, and other malware. The program scans items such as photos, documents, media files, and executables for potential threats and notifies you if something tries to infiltrate your system. The user interface is intuitive, and you can customize the application to reflect your preferences. Avoid any unwanted behavior with Windows Defender. *Call of Duty: Black Ops Cold War/Call of Duty: Warzone on pre-order platform required to redeem Night Raid Mastercraft, sold/downloaded separately.
