For this reason, after I was saved, I took a step and stood up and said: "It was a great sight in every way, and I want to thank you for that you brought this great idea into my head and proposed this project to me. I hope you could do this as an encouragement to others and I hope you will do it in any way you can to help and share it with others." When I say this, I feel my heart and I see a light shining in it...
